Petit Verdot

2021

A rare treat, this exceptional single varietal is produced by the Icard Family, winemakers for 10 generations. One of few bottlings of 100% Petit Verdot, it shines a light on this incredible grape, a hidden gem that is most often used in Bordeaux blends. Here, uniquely isolated, its intense boldness plays the starring role. Ruby-red, bursting with juicy black cherry and plum, as well as violet and lilac notes, this fruity-yet-floral wine maintains classic elegance and authenticity of place while being unapologetically exotic. Sitting in Entre-Deux-Mers, Château L'Orangerie is a family-run estate spanning 350 acres of clay-limestone soil.

Sub-Region: Entre-Deux-Mers, Bordeaux, France

Appellation: Bordeaux

Vinification: Grapes were gently crushed and fermented in stainless steel tanks with various extraction techniques employed to enhance the fruit flavors and mouthfeel. Transferred to barrels to complete malolactic fermentation.

Tasting Notes: Fuller-bodied with intense, classic violet and lilac aromas. The palate profile is bursting with black cherry and plum. The finish is powerful and persistent.

Food Pairing: Delicious with juicy steak, BBQ, Gruyere cheese, and hearty beef dishes

Wine Enthusiast - "Petit Verdot gives richness and structure to this wine ... dark, dense with black fruits and concentrated tannins."
